Doug Clark, Barrister, Gilt Chambers, Hong Kong and Adjunct Professor, University of Hong Kong

Doug Clark is a barrister and arbitrator practising in Hong Kong. He has handled competition law related cases for over 15 years. Doug was formerly the managing partner of international law firm Hogan Lovells' Shanghai office. He has acted in a number of major SEP licensing disputes and has recently acted for a number of clients in relation to NDRC investigations and Anti-Monopoly Law lawsuits relating to licensing practices. Doug is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Hong Kong and the author of a number of legal texts as well as a history of British and American extraterritoriality in China and Japan between 1842 and 1943. He speaks Mandarin Chinese and Japanese.

Stephen Mavroghenis, Partner, Quinn Emanuel

Stephen Mavroghenis is a partner in Quinn Emanuel's Brussels office. He was previously head of Shearman & Sterling's Brussels office and Co-head of its Global Antitrust Group. His practice focuses on competition law and policy. Stephen's practice focuses on EU and UK competition law, in addition to EU regulatory and intellectual property law. Stephen has extensive experience in the aviation, chemicals, energy, high-tech and information technology, pharmaceuticals and medical devices, manufacturing, and media and entertainment industries. He regularly appears in proceedings before the European Commission and the European Courts in Luxembourg. He also appears before the national competition authorities of several member states.

Stephen regularly advises multinational corporations on international mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures and corporate takeovers and defends clients against allegations of cartel participation and abuses of dominance, including issues relating to refusals to deal/license, intellectual property rights, rebates, predatory and excessive pricing. Stephen also regularly counsels clients on a broad variety of business practices including licensing and supply agreements, distribution, agency and the establishment and maintenance of compliance programs. Stephen has published widely on competition issues and is a contributor to multiple legal publications, and is a frequent speaker on competition law and policy.

Stephen is consistently ranked among leading antitrust specialists in peer review rankings and is named as a leading competition lawyer by Global Competition Review, Chambers, Legal 500, and the International Who's Who of Competition Lawyers. Stephen was also named in 2012 as one of the Global Competition Review's "40 under 40" of the world's brightest young antitrust lawyers and has been recognized by Chambers Global as 'one of the best lawyers of the younger generation'.

Dr. Li Hu, Deputy Secretary General, China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC)

Dr. Li Hu is the Deputy Secretary General of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC). He is a Panel Member (Mediator) of the Mediation Center of China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT), and also a Panel Member (Arbitrator) of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), China Maritime Arbitration Commission (CMAC), Hong Kong International Arbitration Center (HKIAC), National Arbitration Forum (NAF, USA), the International Arbitration Court at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Kuala Lumpur Regional Center for Arbitration (KLRC), the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa (AFSA) and Cairo Regional Center for International Commercial Arbitration (CRCICA).

As presiding arbitrator, co-arbitrator and sole arbitrator, Dr. Li has awarded more than 110 domestic and international arbitration cases, including arbitration under ICC Rules and UNCITRAL Rules. As the author, co-author and translator of many arbitration books and arbitration articles, he frequently speaks at international or domestic arbitration conferences and activities.

Conor Quigley QC, Serle Court Chambers

Conor Quigley QC practices law from Serle Court Chambers, one of London's leading commercial barristers' chambers. He specializes in European Union law, in particular concerning competition, commercial, trade and tax law.

Conor is widely regarded as the leading expert at the English Bar in the law of EU state aid and subsidies control. He is the author of the leading textbook, European State Aid Law and Policy, now in its 3rd edition (2015) and is also co-author and general editor (with Suzanne Rab) of Hong Kong Competition Law (2016), (both books available from www.hartpub.co.uk). He regularly advises UK governmental and public authorities, major multinational groups, and other interested parties, and has acted in some of the leading EU law cases over the last 30 years before the European Court of Justice, the UK Supreme Court and Court of Appeal and High Court.

Conor accepts appointment as arbitrator in international disputes, in particular concerning international trade, state aid and subsidies, competition law and environmental issues. He is listed in the Shanghai International Arbitration Centre and has been appointed an ad hoc sole arbitrator by IATA.

In 1991 Conor became a member of the Law Faculty of the University of Oxford, when he was appointed a Fellow in EU Law at Lady Margaret Hall. Since 2008, he has been a Visiting Research Fellow at the Institute of European and Comparative Law. He has also held visiting posts at the College of Europe, King's College London and the International Tax Centre, Leiden University.

Prof Benjamin Hughes, Independent Arbitrator and Associate Professor, Seoul National University School of Law

Professor Benjamin Hughes is an independent arbitrator, associate professor at Seoul National University School of Law, and resident of The Arbitration Chambers in Singapore. He has extensive prior experience as counsel in international arbitrations around the world and under most major arbitration rules. He practiced international arbitration at a large US firm (in the US and Singapore), and was the founding co-chair of the international dispute resolution practice group at one of Korea's oldest and largest full service law firms. Ben ceased practice as a lawyer and has practiced as an independent arbitrator and mediator since March 2013. Since then, he has been appointed as the sole, chair or co-arbitrator in arbitrations under rules of the ICC, SIAC, HKIAC, UNCITRAL, KLRCA, CIETAC, ACICA and KCAB, as well as ad-hoc arbitrations. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators, the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators and the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration. He is Chair of the Korea Chapter of CIARB, Executive Committee Member of the Seoul International Dispute Resolution Center, Member of the International Arbitration Committee of the KCAB, and Director of the Korean Council for International Arbitration. He also serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Korean Law at SNU Law School and the Korean Arbitration Review of the KCAB.
