Online Dispute Resolution through Mediation, Arbitration & Conciliation

Mediation in India is not popular in commercial cases. It is only popular in court annexed mediation centers. Lot more need to be done to make it more popular in India.

Presently there are more than 3 crore cases pending in various courts in the country and 46% of these involve Government Department or Government bodies. Hence, the Department of Justice, Ministry of Law & Justice, GOI, has taken initiative to explore options for Government Departments and Organizations for settlement of their disputes through alternate methods like mediation, arbitration, conciliation, online or otherwise.

For the purpose, the Department of Justice has gathered names of Agencies/Institutions/Organizations working in the field of such alternate methods of dispute resolution, especially providing online mediation services in various matters. A list of such institutions which includes the name of ASSOCHAM International Council of Alternate Dispute Resolution (AICADR) with brief profile is available on the website of the Department.

Similarly, some public sector institutions are now maintaining list of arbitration institutions for using their ADR services in their tender documents. The services of such arbitration institutions which includes the name of ASSOCHAM International Council of Alternate Dispute Resolution (AICADR) also, are being used on rotation basis.

The details of disputes to be referred under AICADR provisions are given below:

AICADR can resolve disputes under its Rules for Arbitration/Conciliation/Mediation, viz.,

A) For reference of the existing dispute in a contract:

The parties acknowledge and agree that a controversy has arisen among them, which they desire to resolve by Mediation /Conciliation /Arbitration (tick mark) rather than litigation. Accordingly the parties agree:

"Any dispute regarding the scope or terms of this agreement, shall be resolved by mediation/conciliation/arbitration (tick mark) under ASSOCHAM International Council of Alternate Dispute Resolution Rules for Mediation/ Conciliation/ Arbitration (tick mark) based on UNCITRAL MODEL subject to Arbitration & Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2015. AICADR Panel of Arbitrators/ Mediators can be appointed on party's request.

B) For reference of the future dispute, incorporate following clause in all your domestic & global commercial contracts:

"All disputes or differences whatsoever arising between the parties out of or relating to construction, meaning and operation or effect of this contract or breach thereof shall be settled by Mediation/Conciliation/Arbitration (tick mark) in accordance with the Rules of 'AICADR' based on UNCITRAL Model and the decision/award made in pursuance thereof by Panelists of 'AICADR' shall be binding on the parties.

C) For any other ADR Rules, AICADR has the State of the art infrastructure:

- Panel of renowned arbitrators/conciliators/mediators
- Professional Team of Secretariat
- ADR meeting rooms equipped with state-of-the-art facilities including Digital projector, audio and visual facilities and a dedicated system
- Multi-point video conference facilities
- Centrally located offices at different locations in India & Abroad

You can also join as AICADR Member

- INDIVIDUAL /CORPORATE /LIFE MEMBER
- MEDIATOR/CONCILIATOR/ADR PANEL MEMBER (ONLY FOR LIFE MEMBERS)
